Willa: I know, I know. ① I can't decide what to wear.

Mac: Well, you'll have to choose something quick, or we're going to be late!

Willa: Okay. What do you think of this shirt?

Mac: Hmm.... ② In my opinion, it's too baggy.

Willa: You really think so? ③ That's my favorite shirt!

Mac: Sorry. I'm just being honest.

Willa: Well, now I really don't know what to wear! What do you think?

Mac: How about that red jacket? It looks good on you.

④ And this baseball cap is very popular these days.

Willa: Yeah. That's cool. Thanks a lot, Mac.

Mac: Hey, what are big brothers for?

Get Real

Fashion Critic

With a Partner

Listen to the monolog and read it out loud. Then, answer the questions.

Today, we're having a big picnic at school. Everyone's excited, but there's one problem: my friend Todd is wearing really strange clothes. First of all, he's wearing a white shirt, but I think it's too dressy. It's not good for a picnic, but I think it's too dressy. It's not good for a picnic. Another problem is his jeans. In my opinion, they're too baggy, and they don't look good at all. He really should wear something different, or people will laugh at him.

Questions

1. What's happening at the school?
2. What are two problems with Todd's clothes?

On Your Own

Read about the situations. Then, look at what the people are wearing in the pictures.

James is at a fancy restaurant with his parents. That restaurant has a dress code.

Mary is climbing a mountain. She's in a mountain climbing club at school.

Peter is at the beach. He likes to play in the water.

Find at least two problems with each person's clothes. Fill in the chart.

	James	Mary	Peter

Problem

With a Partner

Choose one person in the chart above and give your opinion about his or her clothes. Take turns. Then, write who your partner chose and what problems he or she pointed out.

Name: _____

Clothing Items: _____

Problems: _____

Knowledge Link

- A  Read the passage. Fill in the blanks with the given words. Then, listen and check your answers.

A Knight's Clothes

- jacket
- baggy
- worn-out
- tight

Look at the picture of the knight. He's wearing armor. This is what knights wore long ago in the Middle Ages. Armor was made of metal. It was very strong, and it kept knights safe. However, armor isn't easy to wear. It's cold, hard, and heavy. So, knights had to wear clothes under their armor. These clothes kept the knight warm and made armor less uncomfortable to wear.

On top, the knight is wearing a loose shirt. It's simple and _____. He's also wearing shorts and socks. These socks are long and _____. They tightly cover his legs and keep him warm. Over this, the knight is wearing a thick _____. Without this jacket, the heavy armor can hurt his shoulders.

- B Read the passage again. Then, check the correct information to complete the sentences.

- Knights wore clothes under their armor because ...
 - armor was uncomfortable to wear.
 - they made the armor stronger.
- Knights wore ... socks to keep their legs warm.
 - long and tight
 - big and baggy
